

THE BASILITE-1954

EX LIBRIS

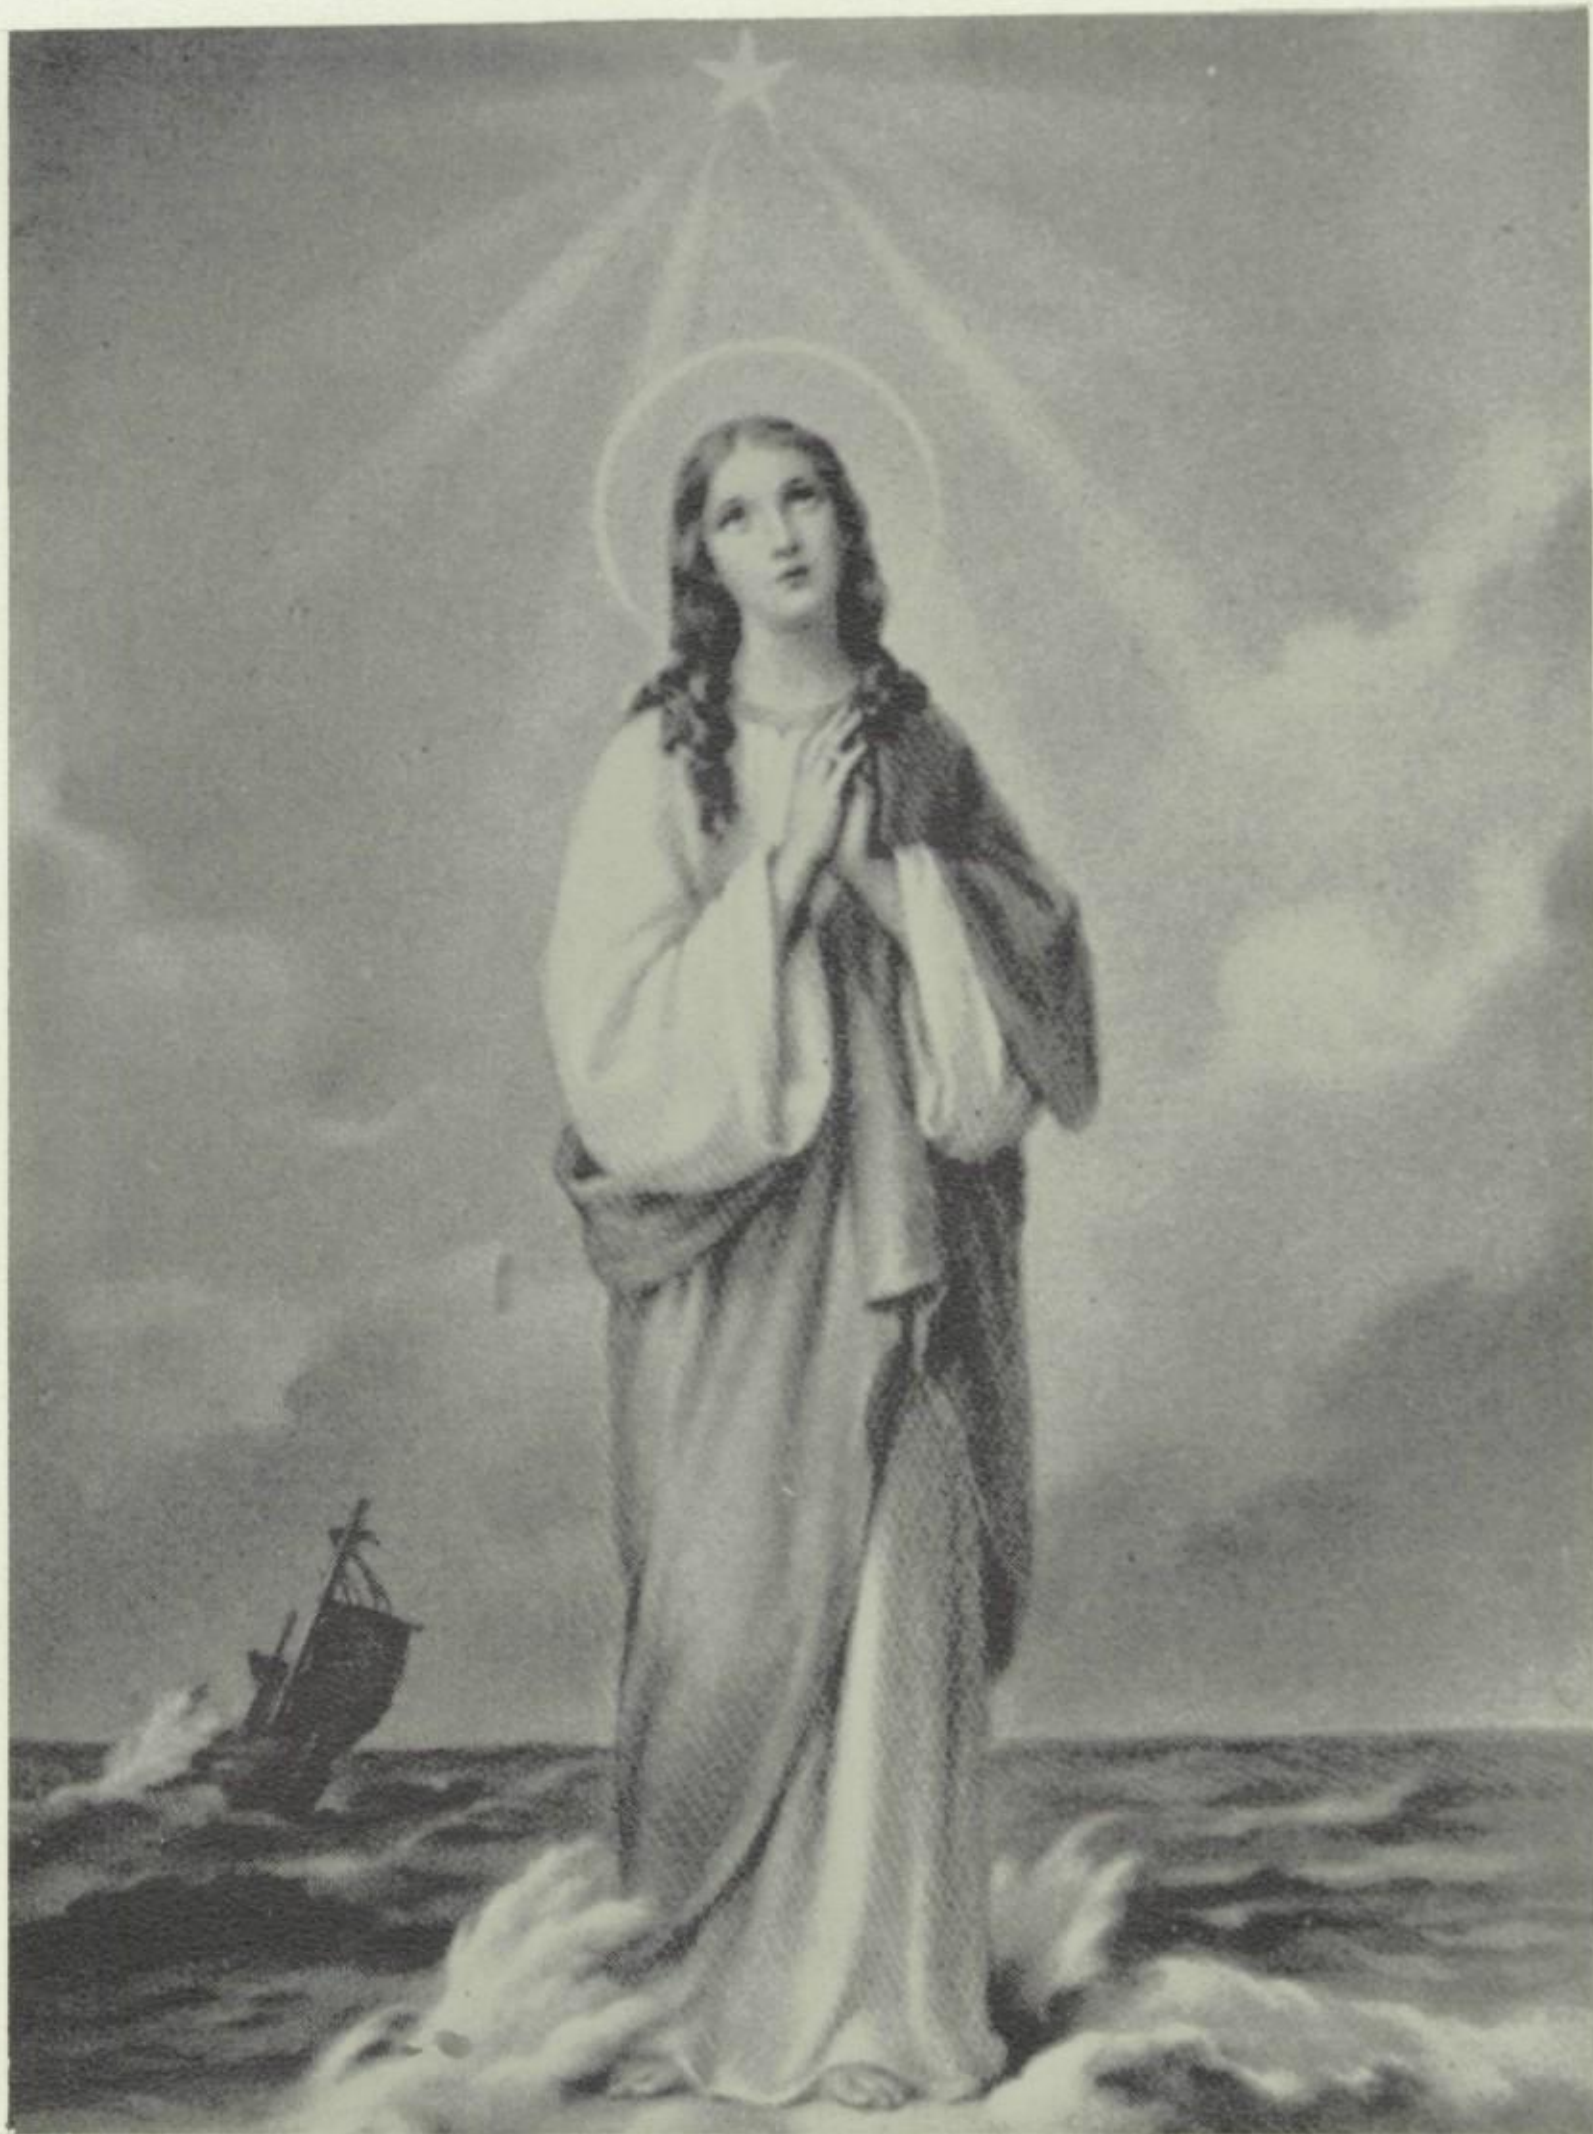

The Basilite

Presented by
St. Basil's High

Graduates of '54

Dedication

MARY, STAR OF THE SEA--it is to you, that we, the Seniors of 1954, dedicate the Basilite. May we ever walk, hand in hand with you, on the stormy sea of life, to the haven of rest, promised to your faithful clients.

Appreciation

As we leave the hallowed walls of our dear Alma Mater and join the ranks of those who have preceded us, feelings of mingled joy and sorrow well up within us. A feeling of joy, for we have reached our ambition; sadness, in that we must part from those with whom we were so closely associated in the past: our priests, our teachers and our classmates.

We, the class of '54 are privileged, to be the first class to have gone through all four years of high school in the new building. For this, we owe a debt of gratitude to our pastor, Monsignor Fussenegger, whose untiring efforts, let nothing to be desired in the line of educational facilities.

With conscientious zeal we were steered through our childhood and adolescent years by the good sisters. Nothing seemed too much for them when our future was concerned; therefore, for their inexhaustible patience they deserve special recognition.

Our self-sacrificing Mothers and Dads, we shall never be able to repay adequately. However, by adhering to the principles of a sound Catholic philosophy, we will make them proud of us.

As we walk down the aisle in cap and gown on Graduation Day, sadness will give way to joy--our hope will then be realized. And when we receive our diplomas, then, we will understand just how great a share our priests, our teachers and our parents have had in that coveted prize. Ours will be a grateful joy, rising to the throne of God to beg His graces and blessings for each and every one of you.

To The Graduates Of 1954

What else can I say in addressing you, who have the honor of graduating in the Marian Year, than to recommend you to the benign care of our Heavenly Mother and to exhort you to remain forever faithful to her? You should consider yourselves singularly privileged in being the Graduates of this blessed 1954; you should look upon it as a distinction.

If you adhere to our Blessed Lady, you will have an advocate for time and eternity. In Mary you can find all help and consolation, all guidance and direction, all strength and grace which you will ever need in life. In every problem that presents itself she will show herself as a Mother; in every temptation and danger she will prove to be your safety and protection. She knows how to help; and there is not a single phase in your life into which she does not fit.

It pleases me to know that you have dedicated your Year Book to Mary, the Star of the Sea. Perhaps we inhabitants of the inland do not realize, as do the mariners, what is implied in this beautiful title. We are not accustomed to gaze upon the stars as the sea-faring people; but still we should have no difficulties in understanding the importance of the stars to those who are tossed upon the boundless main. We can make ourselves realize, however, that we are traversing a sea, the sea of life. Our destiny is the shore of Eternity and--a hard truth it is--there is no turning back upon the course. Steadily and surely we are moving along over the sea which, at times, is calm and serene, and at other times stormy and furious; but like a dependent sailor we need the guiding star. To us, this is Mary, the Star of the Sea.

An old refrain repeats o'er and o'er these words: Respice Stellam, Voca Mariam, which means "Look to the Star; call upon Mary!" St. Bernard says so beautifully: "Fitly is Mary compared to a star, which in giving forth its light, suffers no waning, since she brought forth her Son without stain to her virginity. As the ray of the star lessens not its brightness, so the Son of Mary detracted in no way from her virginity."

Look, dear Graduates, to this Star; call upon Mary! Let the very sight of the Star be to you a reminder as well as an inducement to remain true to her. When assailed with temptations and sorely tried: Look to the Star; call upon Mary! When perplexed and wearied with the difficulties that beset life: Look to the Star; call upon Mary! When vexed by doubts or clouded with sadness: Look to the Star; call upon Mary! When reviled and persecuted, when misrepresented and misunderstood, in sickness and in suffering, in grief and in sorrow: Look to the Star; call upon Mary! But also in joys and gladness do not forget your guiding Star; and finally as life slowly begins to ebb, and the tide starts going out forever, and when you realize that you are bidding Adieu to the things of the world: Look to the Star; call upon Mary!

My dear Graduates, hold fast to Mary and never let a day of your life pass by without a little prayer to her. By your fidelity to her you may expect that she will be your stand-by "now and at the hour of death". I beg to conclude with the following thought from the pen of the noted Father Faber:

"Thou, Mary, art my hope and life
The starlight of this earthly strife."

Sincerely yours in Christ,

M. Sgr. Fussenegger

Tom and Don jump high for a rebound as the team tries to score.

The varsity team got so far ahead in one of their games this season, that they put the managers, Tom Rodwick and Pat Boyle in the game. To the delight of everyone, they both scored.

Farewell Alma Mater

We leave you, Alma Mater,
And go our separate ways,
But as the years go rolling by,
We'll recall these happy days.

Long we've hoped to leave these portals,
But as the time draws nigh,
We find it's growing difficult,
To bid our school good-bye.

The philosophies you've taught us,
Left naught to be desired,
And all through life we'll benefit,
By the knowledge we've acquired.

Ere we leave you, Alma Mater,
We say just one thing more,
Farewell to dear St. Basil's
From the Class of '54.
